MISSION

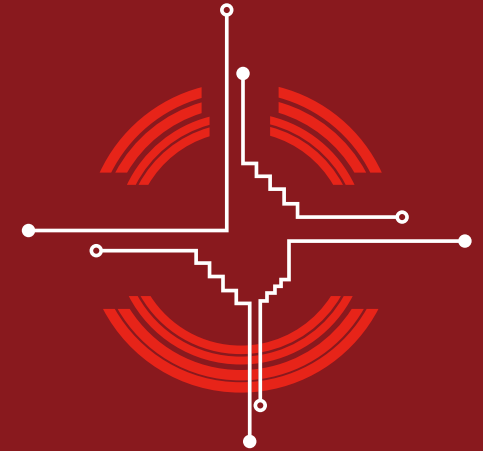

Navajo Technical University's mission is to provide college readiness programs, certificates, associate, baccalaureate, and graduate degrees. Students, faculty, and staff will provide value to the Diné community through research, community engagement, service learning, and activities designed to foster cultural and environmental preservation and sustainable economic development. The University is committed to a high quality, student-oriented, hands-on-learning environment based on the Diné cultural principles:

Nitsáhákees—Nahat'á—liná—Sih Hasin.

Navajo Technical University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission of the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools.

NITSÁHÁKEES
thinking

The goal of Navajo Technical University's First-Year Experience (FYE) Program is to assist first-year students in making a smooth transition into college life. Additionally, the FYE program aims to provide students with the best opportunity to learn about the many resources and opportunities available on campus through a week-long orientation.

INÁ
life

The FYE staff will provide the following services:

- Individualized counseling
- Academic advisement
- Specialized academic services
- Group activities
- Study groups
- Tutoring

Hiking and nature walks are some of the many activities provided to first year students during orientation.

SIH HASIN
achievement

Through the FYE program, you will:

- Learn about NTU and the University's expectations from you as a student
- Develop skills needed to succeed academically while at NTU and beyond
- Have a sense of membership and engagement in the NTU community
- Form strong peer support systems
- Become familiar with campus resources

FYE students roast marshmallows during orientation week.

NAHAT'Á
planning

To reach this goal, Navajo Tech's FYE program is committed to creating:

- A welcoming environment for students in and out of the classroom
- Connections across campus and point of contacts with faculty and staff
- A vibrant student learning community

HOURS

We are here for you! Anytime you need help or guidance, please drop by and see the FYE advisor or academic counselor at Mod 4, located directly across from the Administration Building.

The FYE program office hours are Monday through Friday, 8:00am to 5:00pm. The office is closed on weekends and holidays.
