

Albuquerque SANE Collaborative<https://www.abqsane.org>

(505) 884-7263

Serving individuals who experience sexual assault, human trafficking, and domestic violence. Albuquerque SANE serves victims of sexual and domestic violence by providing immediate, compassionate, culturally sensitive, comprehensive medical treatment and forensic evaluation by nurse experts.

New Mexico Department of Justice<https://www.iad.nm.gov/programs/missing-murdered-indigenous-persons/>

The Missing and Murdered Indigenous Persons (MMIP) portal in New Mexico is a vital source of hope and support, addressing the critical issues of violence and disappearance in Indigenous communities. This initiative offers essential resources for families and friends seeking answers, highlighting a deep commitment to healing and justice.

New Mexico Indian Affairs Department Missing & Murdered Indigenous Persons<https://www.iad.nm.gov/programs/missing-murdered-indigenous-persons/>

Ensures the implementations of the New Mexico State Response plan to help address issues of The Missing and Murdered Indigenous Persons (MMIP) and ensure the safety and protection of all Indigenous People in New Mexico.

Missing & Murdered Diné Relatives Coalition (MMDR)<https://www.navajommdr.org/>

Works to provide support to victims of the Missing and Murdered Diné Relatives (MMDR) crisis, allocating much-needed aid to Diné families in finding their loved ones and achieving justice for the loved ones they have lost through community support and resource sharing.

MMDR Task Force<https://www.navajonationcouncil.org/navajo-nation-missing-and-murder-dine-relative-task-force/>

MMDR Task Force is under the Naa'bik'iyati' Committee. We are group made up of community representatives, nonprofit organizations, victim advocates, and Navajo Nation departments and programs. We provide families with assistance with their cases, educational presentations, and advocacy outreach.

4 Corners K9 Search and Rescue<https://4ck9sar.org/>

4 Corners K9 Search and Rescue is a nonprofit search and rescue team that provides services to families, not just for Navajo families but for all native communities. They also do a lot of outreach presentations and trainings.

For more information, please contact:
Cheryll Atine at c.atine@navajotech.edu,
505.726.3901, or visit SUB 214.