

Navajo Technical University

Name:

ID#:

Master of Arts Dine Culture, Language, and Leadership (36 credits)

The purpose of the Dine Culture, Language, and Leadership program is to educate Navajo People and others who have keen interest in Navajo-related issues. The School of Graduate Studies will develop and refine the students' capabilities, interests and needs to obtain their graduate degrees. In the process, enhance the students' learning abilities to better themselves, their families, their communities and the Navajo Nation.

Semester One		Credits	Prerequisites	Semester	Grade
NAV 501	Navajo Linguistics & Theory
NAV 690	Navajo Research Methodology
STAT 513	Statistical Analysis
Semester Two
NAV 691A	Master Thesis (A)
NAV 511	Navajo Verb System
NAV 551	Navajo Genesis & Theory
Semester Three
NAV 680	Navajo Traditional Leadership & Philosophy
NAV 555	Formation & Foundation of Navajo Thought
NAV 620	Navajo Phonetic, Phonology, Semantics & Syntax
Semester Four
NAV 571	Navajo Government, Law, & Politics
NAV 655	Navajo Identity, Gender, & Personhood
NAV 691B	Master Thesis (B)
TOTAL	CREDIT HOURS	36

	Signatures	Date
Student:
Graduate Advisor:
Registrar:
Graduation Date:		